The Australian Parents Council is an apolitical not for profit organisation and has been a leading advocate for family-school partnerships for over 50 years. It co-led development of the Family-School Partnerships Framework (2008; 2017) and designs and delivers training programs for parents, educators and communities.

Successful Learning workshops for parents

Help your child put their best foot forward at the start of the schooling journey

Successful Learning will help you set your child up for success at school

Content

The parent workshops focus on:

- understanding how children develop literacy and numeracy
- practical strategies and approaches to support them that complement what they are doing at school
- the importance of encouragement and positive reinforcement so children become confident learners

Workshop delivery options

- The literacy and numeracy workshops are both half a day. You can choose one or both.
- Delivery can be in person or online. Workshops are led by professionally qualified and experienced facilitators.
- We can train a suitable person in your organisation to deliver the workshops under a licence agreement.

Cost

- Workshop fees vary according to when, where and how they are delivered, but are kept affordable. The priority for the Australian Parents Council is to help parents and carers set their children up for success at school. Please contact us for a quote.

Successful Learning starts at home

Do you want your child to thrive at school? Are you keen to help and encourage them to develop literacy and numeracy, but not sure what you can or should be doing at home to support them? Successful Learning is a special parent workshop full of information and practical advice on how to help your child become a confident learner in their early years at school and beyond.
